

Valerie A. Brown AO, BSc Med PhD, is Director, Local Sustainability Project, Fenner School of Environment and Society, Australian National University and Emeritus Professor of Environmental Health, University of Western Sydney. Her wide experience includes membership of national scientific and medical councils, executive member of the national federation of consumer organisations, and Chair of Greenpeace Australia. In 1999 she was appointed an Officer of the Order of Australia for advocacy for sustainable development. Her team-written books include Sustainability and Health: supporting global ecological integrity in public health, 2005 and Social Learning and Environmental Management: towards a sustainable future 2005.

“In this rich treasure trove of historical inspiration, contemporary ideas, and future-oriented how-to’s, Valerie Brown has brought together a lifetime of work synthesizing science, participatory processes, and action for sustainability. A seasoned explorer, she moves effortlessly between the disciplines as she describes a comprehensive approach to tackling the great challenges of our time – together”.

ALAN ATKISSON, AUTHOR AND CEO OF EARTH CHARTER INTERNATIONAL.

“Leonardo’s Vision is essential reading for all those wishing to capture the emerging opportunities for collective thinking and action”. This book provides a number of rigorous models and processes drawing on the author’s extensive experience in supporting community efforts towards a sustainable future. I have learnt that one should pay particular attention to anything Valerie Brown publishes, and this is no exception.

CHARLIE HARGROVES, CEO,
THE NATURAL EDGE PROJECT.

Now available in print and as an e-book
from all booksellers, Amazon.com,
Blackwell.com and SENSE publishers, Rotterdam.